Vandals Hit New Houses Near Antioch

Vandalism, the rage of early age, continued over the weekend with an estimated $4,000 damage done to six new houses in a subdivision near Antioch.

The damaged property is in Lotus Woods Subdivision on Grass Lake Rd. near Lotus School. This is a new group of houses put up by Arthur Marino of Timely Enterprises who reported the case to the sheriff's office.

Windows were broken in every house and bathroom fixtures were either removed or broken beyond repair. The tubs, toilets and lavatories were smashed by heavy objects, apparently hammers, according to Juvenile Officer Orville Clavey.

In announcing this case, Clavey said two other cases had been solved. They were the window breaking series at Half Day and at Drexel Blvd. near Grass Lake Rd., north of Fox Lake.

In each case three boys were involved, and three slingshots were confiscated.

Surplus Airplane Sparks New Firm

A new business venture is under way in the Antioch area as a result of an airplane purchase.

The plane, a T-28, is the property of Don Pittman, Rt. 2, Box 555, Antioch. It is the Air Force's fastest propeller driven trainer, once flown by pilots about to graduate into jet aircraft.

Pittman, who operates an auto agency in Antioch, will fly the craft on photo-mapping missions for his new company, the Lake Region Aerial Photo Co. A photographer will operate the switches of the aerial camera from the back.

Structural changes required by the Federal Aviation Authority were made by the Kenosha Aviation Service. Final work was the installation of the high-speed aerial camera.

Pittman also owns another surplus Air Force plane, a T-6 trainer, based at the local airfield in Kenosha, where he plans to keep his newest plane.

Jim Fields In Training

Jim Fields, local representative of the Nationwide Mutual Insurance Co., and Nationwide Life Insurance Co., at Peoria, is one of 30 agents attending a training program there. James J. Doherty, resident vice-president, said the session, one of a series of training courses held periodically by the companies, will continue through Aug. 25.

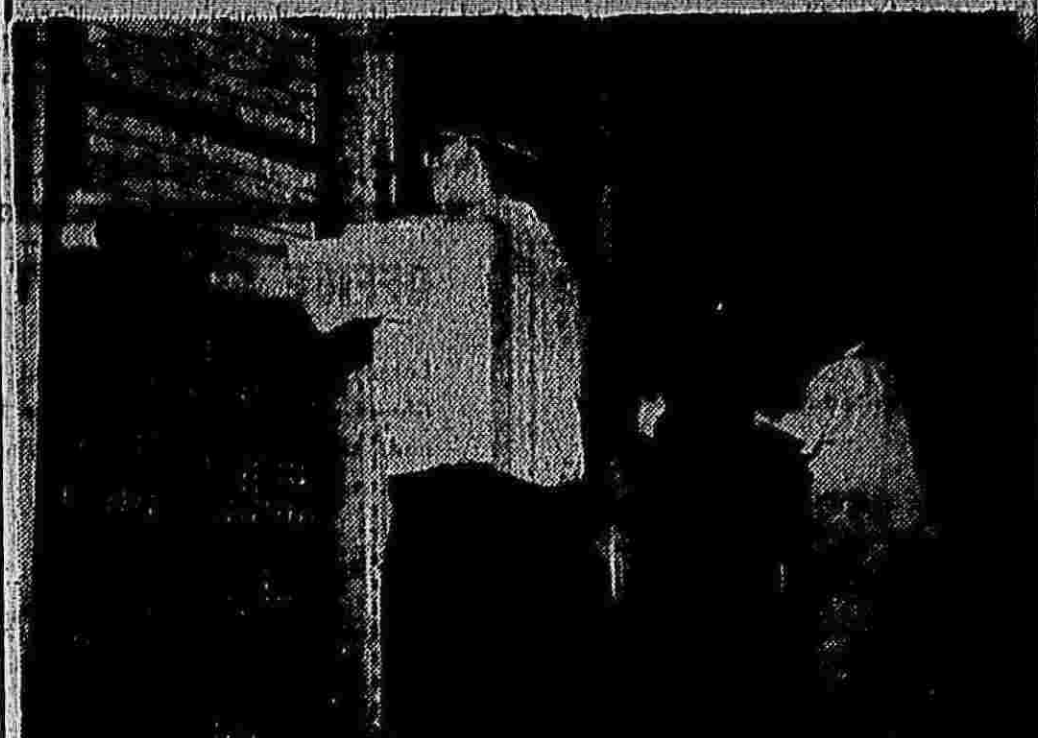

Anita Av. Work Begun But Ida Not Started

Rough grading on Anita Ave. extension was begun Wednesday morning by the Lake Land Construction Co. of McHenry. The firm was awarded the contract by the Village Board at last Tuesday's special meeting.

The extension will be from Depot St. to North Ave.

Ida Ave. will undergo a beauty treatment with curbs and gutters to be installed and a blacktop. As yet work has not started.

History Being Made

When Charles Yous, cut-over coordinator at Illinois Bell Telephone Co., ordered, "Pull the skivvies!" men in the new dial building, above, at 531 Lake street, withdrew thousands of tiny insulating blocks from the equipment and automatically connected every Antioch telephone with the new dial system.

Change to Dial Telephones Goes off 'Without a Hitch'

Nearly 4,500 telephones in the Antioch area underwent a smooth change from manual to dial operation Sunday.

"The dial cut-over was carried out right on schedule without a hitch," said Don Hood, Illinois Bell manager. "The new equipment already has handled thousands of calls."

The switch to dial went off like clockwork after a check of Illinois Bell Switchboard at 986 Victoria St. showed that all lines were clear of calls a few minutes before 2 a.m.

A special closed circuit telephone hook-up linked the old switchboard office with the new dial building at 531 Lake St. during the cutover.

When Chief Operator Irene Noble reported all lines were clear on the switchboard, Charles Yous, the cut-over co-ordinator, put the cutover in motion by ordering "Pull the fuses."

"Pull the Skivvies!" At the old switchboards, Claire Gleason, test center foreman from Libertyville, signalled Don Sandre who pulled a series of fuses from their connections.

This was the first step in taking the switchboards out of service before Yous' seconds later ordered, "Pull the skivvies."

At this command, men in the new dial building drew thousands of tiny insulating blocks out of place which automatically connected every Antioch telephone with the dial equipment.

"Our Antioch customers now can dial, not only one another but can also place direct distant calls to approximately 70 million telephones across the nation," said Hood.

"Operators are still with us at switchboards in Libertyville ready to serve anyone who needs help in completing a call."

Short Circuit Sends Firemen Out Tuesday

A short circuit in the alarm of the new telephone company building at 531 Lake St., sent the Antioch fire department out on call Tuesday night.

Fire Chief Edgar Simonsen reported that the grass fire season opened on Aug. 15 with a call to Bridgewood Dr., in Oakwood Knolls.

Earlier a car belonging to Barry Hofflander of Waukegan went off Grass Lake road and caught fire. No one was injured.

Simonsen said when the call came in it was reported that the car had overturned and someone was pinned inside, so both the rescue squad and the fire department went out on the call.

"We sure were relieved to find out that was a mistake and that no one was injured," he said.

Rifle Bullet Plugs Radiator

Mrs. Ann Murray of Park Ave., Druce Lake, Lake Villa, was washing her car Sunday when—ping—a bullet ripped into the auto's radiator.

Sheriff's deputies located two riflemen, Allan Smith, 22, and Billy Smith, 14, of RFD 2, Box 505, Lake Villa, shooting at logs nearby.

They told deputies they were not aware they had shot in Mrs. Murray's direction, but that they would make good the damage to the car.

B. J. Hooper School Plans Open House

Dedication ceremonies and open house will be held at the B. J. Hooper School addition in Lindenhurst, Sunday, Aug. 27, from 3 to 5 p.m.

A short talk will be made by W. C. Petty, County Superintendent of Schools, and James E. Bradley, principal of the school. LaVerne Dixon will pay special tribute to B. J. Hooper, long time president of the Board of Education of the Lake Villa Consolidated School District 41 and in whose honor the school is named.

Stephen Ball, member of the Board of Education, will discuss the history of the schools in the Lake Villa school district as depicted in a mural he painted on a wall of the addition. This mural has been donated to the school by Hooper. The Parent Teacher Association will serve refreshments.

The original Hooper School of 11 classrooms was completed in 1958 at a cost of $176,000. The addition just completed contains 10 classrooms, storage room, all post room and kitchen. It cost $240,705.

Seek Hunters To Weed Out Rattlesnakes

Want to go on a good old fashioned rattlesnake hunt—right here in Lake County?

Eddie Bellmore, 60, a Wheeling barber, who is organizing the hunt Sunday, Aug. 27, is looking for volunteers.

"There may be 500 rattlesnakes along the DesPlaines River," he said. "We got more rattlesnakes than we need, and the best rattler is a dead one."

Bellmore said anyone aged 16 or over is invited to participate in the "Great Rattlesnake Hunt of 1961."

Hunters will be required to wear knee-high rubber or leather boots and bring a forked stick 5 feet long. They will gather at 1 p.m. Sunday at Bellmore's barber shop at 25 S. Milwaukee Ave., in Wheeling.

"We'll scour both sides of the DesPlaines River from Dundee Rd. north to Deerfield Rd. in Lake County," he said.

"I'd like to get a lot of snake hunters. We want to get rid of the rattlers."

Aqua Center's Summer Season Ends Saturday

A summer-long swimming and instruction program ends Saturday at the Antioch Aqua Center.

The "Learn to Swim" program consisted of two sessions, under the supervision of Charlotte Queen.

The first session began June 12 and ended July 15. The final session started July 24.

Mrs. Queen, who has been with the pool for five summers, replaces the former pool manager, Mrs. Baird, who has gone to Germany.

Big Water Show
The fourth annual water show held at the Aqua Center on Aug. 20 highlighted the swim season.

Under the sponsorship of the Lions Club, the center provides a Red Cross approved program of water safety instructors and aids.

The program is designed to begin with adjustment to water, both physical and mental, and ranges on to junior and senior life saving. The latter is more intricate than the rest and requires four years training, according to Mrs. Queen.

Water Ballet
At the water show presentation a summation of the year's program was presented and highlighted by a water ballet.

Each Water Safety instructor and her students demonstrated the particular phases of learning.

The first phase, to adjust to water, was shown by Sybil Erland and her group.

Second, learning to float, and proper breathing control was done by instructor Sue Duha and her students.

Mrs. Winnie Sorensen and students enacted phase three, showing propulsion in water using strokes and flutter kicking.

Sherry Davis took her students through phase four, coordination of arms and legs in swimming.

Shows Skills
Mrs. Queen and her students demonstrated personal safety skills and adjustment to deep waters.

The instructor for the intermediate class, Gail Troumaine, was unable to attend. Acting as substitute for her was Water Safety Aid Judy Sorensen.

Miss Sorensen conducted the class in a demonstration of coordination learning in the crawl, breast stroke, back stroke and side stroke.

Mrs. Queen took her swimmers through nine styles of swimming with emphasis on distance and perfection.

Qualified Swimmers
"Once the group passes this class they are qualified swimmers," she said.

An outstanding event of the evening was a performance by Glenn Offedahl, 14, a student at Antioch high, and a junior life saving student.

He led the two lifesaving classes in a series of rescues showing three various types. They gave an example of artificial respiration, proper canoe handling and in the event

All Contracts Mailed Over The Weekend

Contracts for a $908,841 addition to Antioch High School were mailed to low bidders over the weekend.

A. L. Dittman, principal, said school authorities hope work on the project can begin by the end of August or early in September.

An Antioch firm, Carey Electric & Plumbing Co., 889 Main St., won the plumbing contract with a low bid of $67,300.

List Bidders
Other low bidders are as follows:
—General contract: Englehardt, Inc., Rte. 178, Libertyville, $622,622.

—Electrical contract: Benson Electric Co., Waukegan, $74,137.55.
—Heating and ventilation: William Zeigler & Son, Round Lake, $144,782.

Earlier awarding of the contracts was delayed when some contractors included a sales tax provision in their estimates, while others did not.

Ted C. Larson, school board attorney, said at a special meeting last Wednesday that the State Department of Revenue informed officials here that materials purchased for schools is not taxable.

36 Bidders
A total of 12 bids were received for the general contract, eight for the heating contract, seven for electrical work, and nine for plumbing.

The proposed two-story structure will stand parallel to the existing building, and will be connected to the front of the present school by two corridors.

It will have 11 classrooms, five science rooms, a cafeteria, kitchen, library, study hall, wash rooms, and office space.

Dittman said partial occupancy (continued on page 7)

Telephone Folks Hold Gala Dinner

Local telephone company employees gathered for a dinner and program at George Diamond's Restaurant in Antioch recently to commemorate the old system and honor the departing operators.

Mary Flint, an operator for the past 8 years, said 183 guests attended the affair.

Mayor Murrell Cunningham spoke on the past service and commended the girls on their excellent work. "Your services will be missed," he said.

Other guests who spoke were E. J. Offedahl of the Rescue Squad, Fire Chief Edgar Simonsen and Don Hood, Illinois Bell manager here.

Among those being honored were Mrs. Ruth Tidmarsh, past chief operator, retired now 3 years; Mrs. Nancy Reichardt, former CO in Antioch, now assigned in Libertyville, and Mrs. Irene Noble, who was the present CO until the changeover.

Katherine Loftus read her original poem dedicated to the old system and Mrs. Helen Lemm read the closing poem, which she wrote.

Antioch High School Band Is State Champion Again!

The Antioch High School Band has won the state championship in its class for the third successive year.

The successful trip to the State Fair in Springfield followed a five-day music summer camp session at Lake Bloomington, where band members practiced as many as 6 hours a day.

"This was what you might call the kickoff for the 61-62, school year, and the students were taken there to practice and get prepared for the coming year," said Joseph Rush, band director.

The music camp was rented for the sole purpose of taking the band and choir as a group to train and practice for the week. They had the camp to themselves from Aug. 14 to 19.

"The amazing thing about it was the wonderful reception the students gave the idea, and how they worked," Rush emphasized.

This was the first time such a venture had been tried by any Lake County high school.

"We had no idea it would be so successful."

The students left from the high school by bus, accompanied by faculty members.

Assisting Rush were T. W. Rush, assistant director; Della Mae Tronchuk, vocal director; Kenneth Smouse, assistant vocal director and James Corrigan and Ruth Nickelson as chaperones.

New Attack on Elm Trees

The second brood of European elm bark beetles is now emerging from dead and dying elms. These insects will carry Dutch elm disease to nearby healthy elms.

This second brood of beetles can't do as much damage to elms this year as the brood that came out in June.

These are the ones, however, that lay eggs for next year's brood. So it is of utmost importance that all dead and dying elms be destroyed in order to eliminate the incubator of these tree-destroying insects.

Retraining Can Be Rough

Gov. Kerner's Department of Labor, currently conducting a survey in Lake and other counties to study unemployment and means of possible retraining those out of work to enable them to relocate in other fields, may be in for tough sledding.

The matter of retraining men for other jobs is not as easy as it may sound. Before agencies spend millions in retraining for an automated economy they had better know for what the men are being retrained.

In a recent study in several industrial areas where a retraining program had begun, men trained in other fields found it tough to get jobs.

There came that familiar cry, "We want someone with more experience."

A former factory worker used his savings for a course in hotel management. He said he was willing to work for two months for no salary in order to gain experience.

"No dice," said hotel interests. They wanted the experience now.

And that's the way it goes.

Industry and management are going to have to be enlisted in a cooperative effort with the retrainers before the program will be a success. Industry is going to have to give the retrained person a chance to gain some experience in his new field.

Until this cooperation and harmony is established, retraining could be but another way of pounding money down a rathole.

Beautifying Wisconsin

Wisconsin's youthful governor, Gaylord Nelson, has decided to save the attractive outdoor resources of that bountiful state and Democrat Nelson is getting a great big assist from his Republican legislature in this move.

The legislature has approved the governor's plans to spend $50 million to preserve the lakes, streams and woodlands of Wisconsin.

The governor realizes that today's increased leisure, more cars, more boats, more campers, more swimmers — poses the threat of overcrowding and spoiling camping and recreational areas. Polluted waters are a danger to swimmers and local inhabitants. Shrinking game and fishing grounds deplete the state's assets.

Thus, Gov. Nelson plans to spend the $50 million to buy up areas of available land for preservation. Roadside areas and bill boards will be cleaned up to improve and preserve scenic beauty. Special restrictions will be imposed against litter and pollution.

By this action, Wisconsin is setting a good example for other states to follow.

Letters to The Editor

The Antioch News

Dear Sir:

Your editorial Re Soldiers (Aug. 17) makes a lot of sense. Possibly leaves of absence could come into the picture. Seems like they are hardly in the Service when they arrive home on leave these times. Discharged a Non Commissioned Officer in 1918, re-enlisted in 1917, served until end of WW I. I had a short enforced leave before being commissioned. That was all the leaves in twenty months.

My last command was a so called Development Battalion. Several thousand men in this outfit. At least 90% though drafted were fit for nothing except discharge and Pension. No one is at fault when Margin Cases are considered, but to some extent men are still being taken into Service who most people would size up as Mental Cases in short order.

A large part of the people in all walks of life are laying down. With all the Unemployment men could be used who were unemployed until they found other jobs, working on Bomb Shelters. Some people could spare time for Voluntary work of this nature. They say we need shelters. They won't be any good months after the first bombs.

Sincerely yours,

John Graham

Lindenhurst Garden Club Annual Flower Show Called "Best Ever"

By Mrs. Bernice Bernau
The Lindenhurst Garden Club held its fifth Annual Flower Show Aug. 12 at the B. J. Hooper School on Sand Lake Road. Every year the show is proclaimed the best and one wonders how the show the next year can come up to the standards of the previous year. But it seems as though every year the show surpasses the one held the year before.

Mrs. Gustav Fabry was chairman and Mrs. Donald Ringmeyer were co-chairmen. Mrs. George Skelton was chairman of the staging and property. The theme of the show was "Four Seasons in Song."

The accredited judges were Mrs. Clare Appleby of Lake Villa, Chesney Brooks, Mrs. Melz, Mrs. Rice, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Huston. Exhibits were judged on appropriateness of theme, design, color and harmony, originality, relation to container and condition of material.

Mrs. Gustav Fabry of Lindenhurst received the Award of Distinction, three brown ribbons, for her display of dried material in a wicker containers depicting Fall and "Indian Summer."

Mrs. Wissing of Venetian Village received the Award of Merit, an orange ribbon, for her hydrangeas in the horticulture division.

Beautiful floral arrangements were exhibited in the non-competitive class by Ted Brendel of Lindenhurst, Floral Acres of Antioch and Reed-Hills of Grayslake. They received orchid ribbons.

Lindenhurst residents who received blue ribbons were Mrs. Donald Ringmeyer, Mrs. Sam Lo-brillo, Mrs. Gustav Fabry, Mrs. Armand Bourque, Mrs. Hubert Bechtol, Mrs. Louis Swoboda, Mrs. Ralph Stangel, Mrs. Roberta Hazel, Mrs. Andrew Westberg, Mrs. John Selzer, Mrs. Denver Shore, Mrs. William Shuttles, Mrs. Betty Hansen, Spike Kockler, John Selzer, Jody Meier, Robert and Rodney Nielsen and Robert Meroni.

Blue ribbon winners were Mrs. Clarence Spiering and Mrs. Lloyd Leable of Antioch; Mrs. Melz from Deerfield; Mrs. J. Buchan from the Long Lake Garden Club; Mrs. L. Etherington and Mrs. George Birmingham of Grayslake; Mrs. Wissing from Venetian Village; Mrs. Kruse and Mrs. J. H. Hazelhurst of Kenilworth.

The Grayslake Garden Club received a blue ribbon for its table setting for a teenage party for six. The tablecloth was a dark green, napkins orange, orange cups with green straws and wicker baskets. Soft drinks were set in a wicker basket. A vase of deep orange marigolds and green bells of Ireland completed the setting. It was very eye-catching.

The Lindenhurst Garden Club had a very attractive table setting, also. It consisted of a black tablecloth with white napkins, with a black musical note setting off each napkin. White milk glass plates and glasses were used with black straws. A bouquet of red and white carnations in a black vase touched off the setting. The club received a red ribbon, second place.

Fruits and vegetables also were exhibited.

Mrs. Hubert Bechtol, president of the Lindenhurst Garden Club was chairman of Conservation. She received a green ribbon for her display.

BBB Warns Of Phony Job Offers

Beware of job offers or "opportunities" to go in business, tied in with the servicing or sale of vending machines, now being offered by several companies in the Chicago area.

This warning from the Chicago Better Business Bureau stems from scores of complaints to it, and the State's Attorney's office, from members of the public who say they thought they were being offered a part or full time job, whereas, the papers they signed may cost them several hundred dollars.

These complainants subsequently learned to their regret the "papers" were contracts, obligating them to pay for a vending machine, at prices ranging from almost $500 to more than $800.

Contact with the victims is made by telephone calls offering part time employment servicing or operating vending machines for various commodities, such as coffee, aspirin, soup, hot chocolate, etc. Following a quick pitch in the first call, appointments are set up for further discussion.

At that time applicants for these jobs say they were subjected to high pressure interviews, during which fantastic earnings were offered, allegedly with no risk for a man who wants to enter business for himself. Only a chosen few will be given this opportunity, says the salesman.

The bedazzled victims, with visions of owning a vending machine which would "pay for itself" and yield an extra income, sign contracts to purchase these machines without even knowing what they look like, or where they will be located.

Then comes the disillusionment. Locations are non-productive, sales skimpy, or none at all—yet, the payments, as set forth in the contract, must be made.

Some complainants say they were led to believe the papers they signed were some kind of a bond to protect the company if the machines were lost or not properly serviced. In some instances the signing was described as a "mere formality." Nevertheless, such "signing" enabled the companies to demand full payment.

When a good driver and a poor driver meet head on, both get the worst of it. But, according to the Institute for Better Living of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company, the good driver is more apt to take the necessary steps to prevent an accident. More often than not he succeeds. It pays to be a good driver.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lindberg and their three children, Brian, Bruce and David, 1900 East Sprucewood Lane, spent their vacation in Waco, Texas, visiting their former next door neighbors, Malcolm and Kay Piercey.

They visited the Alamo in San Antonio, where Davey Crockett fought the Mexicans and they drove around quite a bit seeing the sights and going on picnics.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold (Marge) Behrendt, 1830 Maplewood, went by train to Denver, Colo., on their vacation. Their children, Holly, 6, and Mary, 5, enjoyed making snowballs on the top of the mountains in August. Walking through the clouds was quite an experience to them.

They rented a car while there and visited the Cave of the Winds, Garden of the Gods, Seven Falls, Rocky Mountains, zoo in Colorado Springs that wasn't quite finished, but was similar to our Brookfield Zoo. They stayed at different motels while there.

The Lake Villa American Junior Auxiliary to Post 1219 spent its meeting day, Aug. 17, at Hawthorn-Melody Farm in Libertyville. The girls went through the zoo, the country store and the country, milking parlor. Mrs. Eunice Rathmann and Mrs. Helen Page accompanied the 10 young ladies, along with their guests, Mrs. Rose Jarvis of Lake Villa and Mrs. Dorothy Newyear of Venetian Village.

August 18 was an exciting day for Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Graham of 304 Hazelwood Drive. Their daughter-in-law, Marilyn, gave birth to her third child, a little boy, named Peter Andrew. The Rev. Ronald Graham of 6400 S. Hermitage, Chicago, minister of the Thoburn Methodist Church, is the proud father.

The baby is the Grahams' 11th grandchild, and the second in two weeks.

Alice Bechtol, Pat Loblillo and Ed and Ralph Westberg attended the Music Association Camp at Bloomington last week, sponsored by the Antioch High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman (Jeanette) Holder of Granite City and their daughter, Linda, were house guests of the Hubert Mechtols, 2300 Witchwood Lane, recently. Mr. Holder is Mrs. Bechtol's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Parpan, 1912 Fairfield Road, christened their son, Danny, August 13 at Prince of Peace Church. Godmother was Nancy Kemski, 1914 Longmeadow Drive. The godfather was the baby's uncle, Joe Parpan of Chicago.

Guests for dinner were the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Ginely of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Parpan and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gregory and family of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund Kempski and the four Parpan children, Raymond, Mary Jo, Brian and Tommy.

Mr. and Mrs. John (Rae) Gibbons, 2010 Old Elm Road, celebrated their seventh wedding anniversary Aug. 14. Rae's secret pal in the "Q-T" club helped to make this a memorable occasion by gifting them with a bottle of "pink champagne."

They have two boys, Kevin and Scott. On August 12 they attended the wedding of Rae's mother, Mrs. Edna Atchey to Elmer Tenner, of Chicago. They had dinner at Patricia's, Belmont and Harlem.

(Written for last week)

Mrs. William Kaub gave a stork shower for Mrs. John Chmelir of Venetian Village, recently. Mrs. Chmelir is a first grade teacher at Hooper School.

Teachers attending from the Lake Villa School were Mrs. Marge DeYoung, Mrs. F. Albert, Mrs. Eloise Brown, Mrs. Nitz, Mrs. Melvin Colbert, Mrs. Martha Cox and Mrs. Brandt. From Hooper school, Mrs. Marilyn Loomis.

Other friends were Mrs. Dorothy Smith, Mrs. Marcy Rolin, Mrs. Mary Jane Rolin, Mrs. Clara Millar, Mrs. Shirley Sherwood and Mrs. Richard Moore. Mrs. Moore was visiting the Ken Rollins. She formerly lived in Venetian Village, but now lives in Rochester, Minn.

Mrs. Kaub invited Mrs. Chmelir over to visit while her husband, John, discussed insurance with Mr. Kaub. The Chmelirs have three children, Lynn, John and Peter. The new baby is expected in December.

A tree branch painted white and decorated with tiny baby garments and diapers, with a rock-a-bye baby swinging from the branches, made a very attractive center piece.

The baby received many beautiful gifts. Games were played and delicious refreshments were served.

Carole Drago arrived home Aug. 8, after a three-week vacation in Northridge, Cal., where she visited her aunt, Mrs. Rose Consiglio, and three cousins, two of them teenagers like herself.

Carole visited Disneyland, Marineland, Graumann's Chinese Theatre, POP (like Riverview Park), and the Hollywood Bowl. She swam in the ocean for the first time and in the private pools belonging to neighbors of the Consiglios. She saw palm trees and mountains, and the homes of the movie stars, but not even a glimpse of one actor or actress. She met several teenagers whom she liked out there, and hopes to go back and visit them again next year.

Stanley and Pat Szczesniak spent their two week vacation visiting Pat's brother, Henry Chinisci and family in Albuquerque, N.M.

They toured Taos, Santa Fe and the surrounding area, and swam in the pools at Los Altos.

With them were their children, Debbie and Billy, and Pat's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Chinisci.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Uebele celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary August 11, with neighbors, the Stan Szczesniaks, Saturday evening.

Lindenhurst News

LINDENHURST — Ralph Zanck fell out of a tree he was climbing over the barns last Wednesday and broke his left arm. The Lake Villa Rescue squad took him to St. Therese Hospital, where he was a patient for two days.

Mrs. Ella Schramek underwent a serious operation about two weeks ago, and will be hospitalized for some time. She is doing quite well, but cards from neighbors and friends would help to cheer her up. Her address is Room 101, Conell Hospital, Libertyville, Illinois.

Mei Uebele was hostess for a toy party last Friday evening.

A Dedication Dance on Sept. 16, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. is being planned by the Lindenhurst Men's Club to officially open the new Lindenhurst Civic Center.

Doug Sanders is chairman of the committee. Helping him are Ted Brendell, Lou Hareg, Bud Kleban, Lyle Mercer, Bob Spiegl and Thor Neumann. There will be an orchestra, refreshments and prizes.

The names of all who have bought "bricks" will be displayed on one wall. Those who haven't had the opportunity to do so as yet, may purchase theirs that night.

Two movies were shown to members of the Juvenile Police at their September 15 meeting, "Way of Life" and "Snakes." Pat Clavey, Juvenile Officer of Lake County, stopped in for a minute to meet the boys, and promised to come back again real soon to really get acquainted.

A bicycle race is planned for their September 5 meeting. Ron Coles asks that all boys make returns on their subscription books at that meeting.

Gary Van Brunt of Lake Villa will give a talk about snakes and show his snake collection at the Sept. 5 meeting. (Not alive; they are preserved in jars.)

The Little League Braves team had planned a glorious picnic for Saturday afternoon at Lehmann Park in Lake Villa, but the weather man refused to cooperate. So a buffet supper was set up in the Venetian Village Civic Hall.

Ray Parpan, manager of the Braves, donated and awarded three trophies.

Best sportsmanship was awarded to Michael Koeppen. Highest batting average, Joe Hamm. Most valuable player, Jimmy Garrett.

In place of the mothers' and sons' ball game that had been planned, the boys played football.

The members are in the process of making articles to be sold at their bazaar, which will be on Nov. 4. If you have any ideas for unusual items to make, bring them to the meeting. Your help will be greatly appreciated.

Your rummage is needed for the Lindenhurst Women's Club Sale, to be held Sept. 16, at the new Civic Center. For pickup, please call Mrs. Bernau, ELiot 6-5849.

Elm Disease Studied In Kenosha Co.

Gerald Jeffery, State Dutch Elm Disease Inspector, complete a busy three days in Kenosha County by reporting to Lee Smith, County Horticultural Agent, that areas in the county need immediate attention if the disease is to be controlled. He referred specifically to the lake-shore area in Somers township, and the Camp Lake and Valmar area in Salem township. There are other areas that need immediate attention that he didn't have time to check.

Jeffery said he found a large number of dead trees that died in previous seasons and had not been removed. These, of course, are the cause of the high incidence of the disease in some areas. He also said the many subdivisions around the lakes have many vacant lots which make it difficult to determine responsibility for removal of diseased and dead elms.

There was one bright note in Mr. Jeffery's report. He said the Dutch elm disease situation in the village of Silver Lake is much improved. The sanitation or clean-up of dead and weak elms was much better than in previous years.

Jeffery took samples from 50 elm trees for laboratory analysis and recommended the removal of 37 dead elms that he found in these areas inspected.

Jeffery was assisted by local people who are interested in the control of the disease. Those assisting were: Sam Lewis, Somers; Lewis Turner, Pleasant Prairie; and William Sheriff, in Salem.

Smith said the disease elm count in Kenosha County was 345 on August 15, with 190 laboratory samples yet to be reported on. There were 195 total in the city of Kenosha.

and completion are expected by the starting of the fall term in 1962.

The present building will be remodeled to enlarge present facilities, including the band room, laboratory, and athletic rooms.

Lay Walk
School officials have also obtained permission from the Soo Line railroad to lay a 12-foot wide concrete sidewalk across the tracks to the athletic field on the east side of the tracks.

Dittman said site development of the 18-acre east of the tracks is progressing well on the physical education area. Sod and seeding is being done by school custodians.

Present plans are to use the newly developed area during the 1962-63 school term for baseball, soccer, field hockey, football practice, track, and football games, Dittman said.

Area Girls Win 4-H Club Award At Ill. State Fair

The State Fair at Springfield came to a close on Sunday, August 20, but not without a memory of two tucked away in someone's bonnet.

Each year hundreds of girls and boys spend a great deal of their time preparing for this occasion to display their projects and talents.

This year some 700 4-H club members, leaders and friends attended the annual style show put on by the 558 girls enrolled in the clothing projects.

Mrs. Warren Polley of Antioch was chosen as one of the three final judges for this event. Mary Jane White of the Millburn Maidens was one of the models wearing her own creation. She also was chosen as an alternate to go to the flower arranging contest.

Another class entry is when a girl is chosen to send a garment to the fair for construction. Jane Ellen Higginson of the Millburn Maidens was one of three in Lake County chosen for that opportunity.

Educational booths were set up in the 4-H building on the fairgrounds and of the 39 clubs, Sequoit Suzles of Antioch were given Good Participation rating.

Paris in Spring
Three numbers were presented by the ballet class under the supervision of Sybill Erland who also handled the choreography.

For the first number, "Paris in Spring," the girls dressed in orange and white striped suits. Changing to black suits and white head bands, the girls presented "Lullaby" for their second act. Finally, in sparkling white hats and black suits, the ballet class presented "Carousel Waltz."

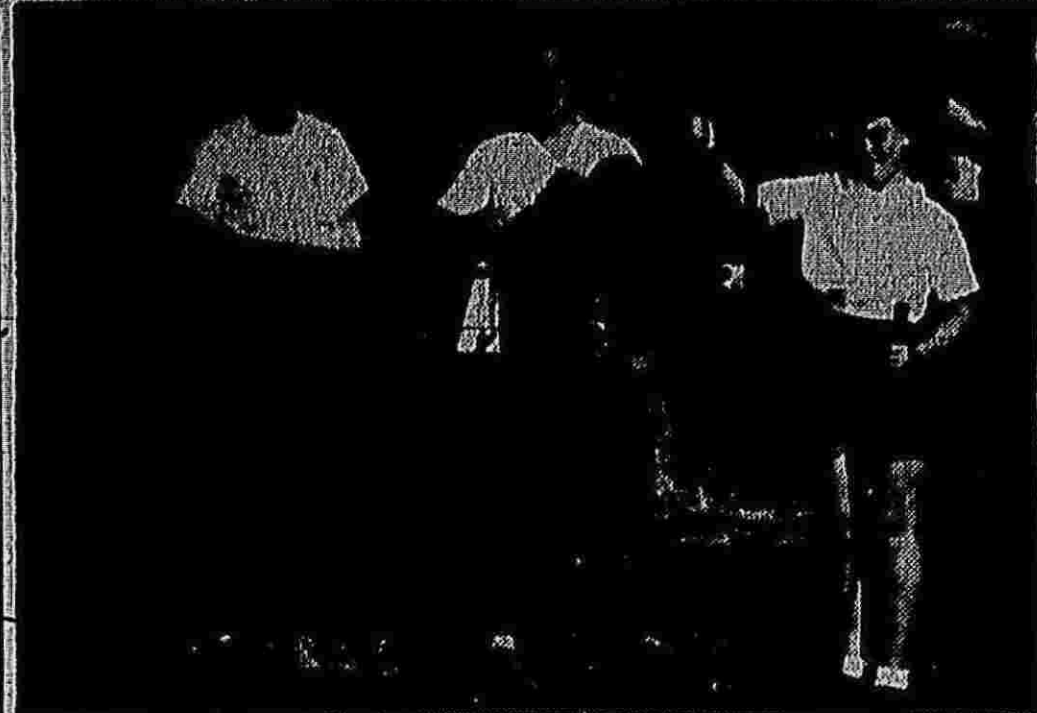

The entire production was done under the lights of the pool.

Ten girls presented the three pieces. They are Randy Jacobsen, Suraya Brook, Sue Gorlitz, Janet Tolley, Lark Hawkins, Karen Delaney, Sue Duha, Sherry Davis, Judy Sorensen and Lee Nelson.

The girls averaged 16 years of age and the youngest was 12.

Only 10 per cent of the June graduates from the University of Illinois College of Agriculture returned to the farm.

Head for the Hills! Hay Fever Time Is Just Around the Corner

The annual hay fever exodus soon will be on, according to the Chicago Motor Club.

Starting about the middle of August, and continuing up to the first frost, many Americans will be seeking relief from the dreaded ragweed pollen that infests the country during this period.

Hay fever sufferers seeking relief will literally head for the hills—and wooded and seashore areas, too. These areas are relatively free of the annoying pollen "fall out."

Highest hit among hay fever victims usually are Midwesterners and those who live in the intensively tilled portion of the Mississippi Valley. Air-borne ragweed pollen generally is heaviest in this region.

The Chicago Motor Club's touring department advises hay fever victims that the region west of the Cascade Mountains of Oregon and Washington is considered to have one of the lightest incidents of ragweed pollen in the nation. Alaska also is almost completely free of the sneeze provoker.

A good degree of relief also can be obtained in the wooded areas of extreme northern Michigan, Minnesota, New Hampshire, and Maine, as well as in the central Adirondacks and in the extreme southern tip of Florida.

In the Rocky Mountain states ragweeds always are present in farming areas, but are largely absent in desert and forested regions.

Although, as a general rule, high altitude, wooded, and seashore areas offer the best relief, sometimes local patches of ragweed exist even here. This accounts for reports that some persons have been affected in areas where the pollen count is supposedly low. Also, those whose allergic condition is extremely sensitive may be affected where the great majority of sufferers find relief.

The season of ragweed pollen distribution in most areas is largely confined to August and September, but along the Gulf Coast the weeds still are active in October. Southeastern California and Arizona have an early ragweed season in March, April and early May.

In central Florida and the Florida West Coast the hay fever season begins in June and lasts until November. The season also is long in the Brownsville section of Texas.

The motor club's touring department recommends the following areas as among those offering excellent refuge to the average hay fever victim:

West Yellowstone and Yellowstone National Park, Wyo.; Alaska; Los Angeles, San Francisco, Sequoia, and Yosemite National Parks, Calif.; Key West and Miami Beach, Fla.; Sun Valley, Idaho; Presque Isle, Me.; Isle Royal National Park, Mich.; Glacier National Park, Mont.; Reno, Nev.; Crater Lake National Park and Portland, Ore.; Bryce Canyon National Park and Zion National Park, Utah; Mt. Ranier National Park, Seattle, and Spokane, Wash.; and Rocky Mountain and Mesa Verde National Parks, Colo.

The motor club cautions hay fever sufferers to take it easy when driving during the pollen season, as the allergy might cause them to tire more easily and thereby impair their driving efficiency.

Boy Scout Troop 82 To Hold Paper Drive

Boy Scout Troop 82 met last Saturday in the Scout House to discuss a number of important projects. Among them is a paper haul that the Scouts will conduct Aug. 26. On Aug. 29 the troop will go to Riverview amusement park in Chicago.

Troop Scribe Terry Harrison reported that the Scouts are going to give the Girl Scouts a cracker barrel.

The troop also intends to plant a number of trees, Harrison said, "if we can get hold of some."

The Memphis Commercial Appeal has published a letter from a train dispatcher in which he says: "Trains can haul all types of trucks, but no truck yet has been able to haul a train."

Van Patten, 75, announced his retirement late last week. He had been a member of the Board since 1927.

Fritz, a former justice of the peace, and chief of his township's fire department, will finish VanPatten's term, which ends next April.

The following recipe for safer expressway driving is offered by the Institute for Safer Living: To every 100 miles of driving add one rest stop, several body stretches, one cup of coffee or other non-alcoholic refreshment. Stir with a few brisk steps around the car and add 40 winks if drowsy.

Thompson Named Grade Schools Superintendent

A Lake Villa man, William Thompson, has been named superintendent of grade schools in Fox Lake.

He will succeed Keith Bltner, who resigned during a controversy over the finding of school furniture in his home.

Thompson, the manager of Sherwood Park in Lake Villa, is currently president of the Lake County School Board Assn.

He formerly was assistant to County School Supt. W. C. Petty. He was named to the $8,500 a year post at a meeting of Fox Lake Grade School Board No. 114, that saw the six board members deadlocked over the appointment.

Mrs. Mary Nordstrom, board president, who nominated Thompson for the position, voted for Thompson's approval, to break the tie.

Name Chicago Attorney To Mental Health Post

Russell M. Baird, a Chicago attorney, has been elected President of the Mental Health Society of Greater Chicago and will assume his duties September 1.

Robert L. Farwell, president of the mental health society since 1958, will continue to serve on the Board of Directors as Chairman of the Nominating Committee.

In accepting the presidency, Baird stated:

"It is my feeling that businessmen and professional people alike must provide strong and determined leadership in this health field which now affects one person out of every ten. The mental health field still suffers from limited public support and is laboring under the burden of primitive facilities and procedures. It is necessary for them, by volunteer efforts, to exercise leadership and encourage community action."

The Mental Health Society of Greater Chicago carries on community planning and education in the field of mental health in Chicago and suburban Cook, Lake and DuPage Counties, and provides active volunteer leadership in programs to benefit the mentally ill.

Primary objectives of the Society are financial support for legislative programs of the Illinois Society for Mental Health, and national research programs of the National Association for Mental Health.

Dr. and Mrs. Otto Savera, their six year old son, Thomas, of Vienna, Austria, and Mr. and Mrs. Tempel Smith of Tempel Farms, Old Mill Creek, near Antioch, will be the guests of honor of the Country Riding Club at a noon buffet at the Zinser Farm, Delavan, Wis., Sunday, Aug. 27.

Dr. and Mrs. Savera are noted throughout Europe for their riding skills on both the Lipizzaner and Arabian horses. Mrs. Savera, whose first name is Ossi, was named best rider of 1961 in Dressage, Austria, after a series of National, International, and Olympic meets.

Dr. Savera, a practicing medical and dental surgeon, is considered one of the best instructors and riders of the Lipizzaner horse, traditional steed of the Spanish Riding School in Vienna. They own three Lipizzaners and one Arabian. The Saveras are in America as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Smith. They are here to inspect horse breeding on the Tempel Farms. Thirty-nine of the pure bred Lipizzaners and Haflinger horses were shipped to the farms by the Smiths in 1958 for the purpose of developing a pure blood Lipizzaner and Haflinger breed in the United States.

Another Night of Thrills Set at Waukegan Speedway

John Reimer, Caledonia, won his second event for the modified stocks at the Waukegan speedway Sunday, as he came from the back of the pack to take the lead and win on the eighth lap. He averaged 50.34 mph in capturing the 25-lap event.

The win, compiled with a win in a heat event and the night's third fastest time, moved Reimer to within striking distance of the track championship.

Leader Ted Rozinski, of West Allis, placed 10th in the main event to give him a new total of 2150 points. Fellow townsman Bill Strom, placed eighth. Third place Jack Frost, Zion, had mechanical difficulty, but drove to sixth place, earning 105 points to stay within striking distance of the leaders. He now has 2100 points, just 50 behind the leader.

A first lap accident stopped the event necessitating a restart. Six cars were involved when Ron Vandervol of Grayslake spun out. None of the cars was lost to the feature race competition, however.

Ed Irving, Waukegan drove his car to second place after holding the lead from the first through seventh lap when Reimer took over.

Tom Powers of Zion won the 15 test ahead of Jim Bozeman, also of Zion. His speed was 47.87 mph.

Otto Injured

Roger Otto of Burlington was hospitalized when his car spun on the first lap of the second heat event and smacked the concrete retaining wall.

Highlight of the evening was the season's first powder puff derby and 28 woman drivers climbed behind the wheels of the amateur cars for a ten lap event. They averaged 33.17 mph.

The amateur men then took over and nine managed to finish the event with no less than 17 scattered around the track, all victims of serious smash-ups which severely damaged cars. None was injured, however.

Next Sunday, the speedway will present its 16th consecutive Sunday night program of modified and sportsman racing. The speedway will be celebrating its second annual $20,000 night, marking the second consecutive year that prize purses paid drivers has exceeded that amount.

As a special added attraction, a back-up demolition race will be held. Cars will race in reverse gear around the track and complete one lap, then turn around and complete another lap in reverse gear.

Time trials start at 7:15 with the races getting under way at 8:30 p.m. The track is located just west of Waukegan on West Washington St.

Maturity Stake Runs Saturday at Sportsman's Park

Six starters in the $63,000 American-National Maturity Pace Stake at Sportsman's Park Saturday, Aug. 26, have achieved a 2:00 mile, the most coveted goal in harness racing.

The six brilliant 4-year-olds are Countess Adios, Dancer Hanover, Sampson Direct, Knight Time, Merrie Gesture, and Muncy Hanover. All possess marks of better than 1:59. Other definite starters in the race are Merrie Adios and Leola V. Grattan.

In contrast to the first two runnings of the Maturity, won by Bye Bird and Adios Butler, there will be no single standout in Saturday's field. However, the overall quality surpasses that of the 1959 fields.

The stakes record of 1:58 2/5 is held by Bye Bird. That clocking also is a world mark for the five-eighths of a mile track.

Chicago Downs Association officials are looking forward to the definite possibility that the 2:00 minute mile and Bye Bird's record may be broken. As an added incentive, the winning driver will receive a bonus of $2,000 if his horse cracks Bye Bird's mark.

Countess Adios brings the most impressive credentials to the Maturity Stake. The Adios daughter, trained and driven by Delvin Miller, has won more than $250,000 during her career, and has a chance to increase her earnings to over $300,000. Her most important victory this season came in the $50,000 Harness tracks of America paces final at Roosevelt Raceway in New York.

The Maturity Stake climaxes a brilliant season of big money events at the Cicero racing oval. It is a companion feature to the $69,848 American-National Maturity Trot Stake, won by Merrie Duke on June 24.

These races presently are the richest events for 4 year old trotters and pacers. Next season, the purses will be increased to $100,000 each, making the contests the richest ever held in the Midwest.

Sportscar Race at Wilmot Honors Behanna's Memory

Sports car race buffs are all set for a thrilling weekend, Aug. 26-27, when the Sports Car Club of America, Chicago Region, will hold its Bill Behanna Memorial Sports Car Benefit Races at the Wilmot Road Racing Course, Wilmot, Wis.

Some 100 of the nation's top amateur drivers in the world's finest, fastest sports cars will not only be speeding for new records, but also to bring desperately needed aid to children and adults who suffer from epilepsy.

Proceeds of the race will benefit the medical research and job placement programs of the Illinois Epilepsy League.

John Vollbrecht, Lake Bluff, is race chairman.

"The Wilmot track is a working driver's course," said Vollbrecht. "Ten laps at Wilmot is a long distance. Drivers are always on the gas, or punching the clutch in and out, or stabbing the brake, or shifting gears or cranking the steering wheel."

He pointed out that the Aug. 26-27 event will be one of the few occasions when the brilliant, tricky Wilmot track is open to the public.

The late William Reynolds Behanna, Waukegan attorney, for whom the race is named, was one of the prime movers in founding the Wilmot track.

Although he did not participate in sports car racing, he is remembered as a man who took time from a demanding profession to work long, hard and enthusiastically for the sport.

Sales Tax In Sports Ruled Out

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—The Illinois Department of Revenue is making an important change in its original approach to the question of levying the Retailers' Occupation Tax on rentals from tangible personal property beginning Sept. 1, as required by recent legislation, Theodore J. Isaacs, director of revenue, has announced.

Revenue Department officials have doubted that it was the intent of the General Assembly to tax charges for bowling and other do-it-yourself games, but have felt compelled to hold that such charges would be taxable because they do not represent the furnishing of anything except the use of tangible personal property, Isaacs said.

After further study, the department now believes it can legally give effect to this legislation without taxing these charges, Isaacs said. The department has taken this stand by holding that there has not actually been a transfer of possession of the equipment. It still is in the possession and under the control of its owner. The user merely has temporary custody and a license to use the property, but does not obtain legal possession, so there is no rental or lease in a legal sense.

The new outlook by the department will exempt receipts of money from rentals of the following equipment from the ROT: bowling, billiards and pool; golf balls, clubs and carts used at a golf course; pinball machines, shuffleboards and other

Waukegan Man Sets New Record

A new track record of 52.54 mph was set at the Kenosha County Speedway at Wilmot, Wis., last Saturday, as Bill Shoulders of Waukegan won the 25 lap modified stock car feature race. The old record, held by Don Sorce of West Allis, Wis., was 52.06 mph.

In second place was Jack Frost of Zion; third place, Jim Sullivan, Antioch; fourth, Don Sorce, West Allis, and fifth was Rod-Fuller of Racine, Wis.

Russ Sorenson of Racine won the 15 lap semi-feature. In second place was Tom Powers of Zion, and in third place was Roger Otto of Burlington, Wis.

Tom Powers of Zion won the first 10 lap heat with a speed of 49.88 mph. Russ Sorenson of Racine won the second 10 lap heat, 50.22 mph; Bill Shoulders, Waukegan, won the third 10 lap heat, 50.49 mph; and Jack Radtke, Grayslake, won the fourth 10 lap heat, with 50.88 mph. The fastest qualifier in modifieds was Don Sorce of West Allis with 54.16 mph.

Roger Hagl, Lake Villa, won the first 10 lap Sportsman's heat with a speed of 46.89 mph. Jim Clarkson of Milwaukee, Wis., won the second 10 lap Sportsman's heat, 47.08 mph and also the 12 lap Sportsman's Feature, at 46.92 mph.

Next week's racing will feature a 50 lap race.

play-it-yourself games; rides operated on the owner's premises; coin-operated washing and dry cleaning machines on the owner's premises; and lockers on the owner's premises.

The sale of these kinds of equipment to owners who will charge others for their use without relinquishing actual possession will continue to be taxable retail sales, Isaacs said.

Isaacs said that another important point which needs clarifying concerns the tax on rentals or leases of tangible personal property (not real estate).

Although the lease may have been signed before Sept. 1, 1961, rentals paid on or after that date will be taxable. The legislature did provide that if the lessor already has paid a use tax on the cost price of the property, he may take a credit for this tax against his Retailers' Occupation Tax liability on his rental receipts under the new legislation.

The Department of Revenue will consider as taxable the receipts of all rentals from tangible personal property beginning Sept. 1, Isaacs said.

Hail Clean Streams Week Aug. 20 - 26

The Lake County Health Department is enthusiastically supporting the aims of "Clean Streams Week," proclaimed by Governor Otto W. Kerner, to begin August 20. It was announced today by Arthur G. Baker, M.D., director of the health department.

Dr. Baker said that the staff of the department has been actively engaged, since the inception of the department three years ago, in maintaining the high quality of the water in the many recreational waters of the county.

The health department conducts a number of programs, which contribute toward keeping Lake County streams and lakes clean. Among the most recent of such measures is an ordinance sponsored by the health department and passed by the County Board of Supervisors and which requires all boat toilets to be sealed while the boat is used on the inland lakes of the county. The ordinance is being enforced by inspections, warnings, mailed to violators and by weekend boat patrols conducted by the health department and the county sheriff. Violators who do not comply with the ordinance are liable to a $200 fine.

In another program the health department exhibits its interest in promoting improvement in community sewage treatment operations. The department is promoting improvement in sewage treatment plant operators conferences. The latest conference was held in July when operators discussed creation of a county-wide system of grading sewage treatment plants. The sewage treatment plants in the county are also inspected periodically by sanitarians under the direction of Ward Duell, Senior Sanitarian. During these inspections the plants are checked out on the standards determined by the Illinois Sanitary Water Board. At the same time the efficiency of all plants is determined by taking samples of sewage for laboratory analysis. These samples are taken both before and after treatment.

Another important pollution abatement program of the health department is that of individual sewage disposal system approval and inspection. Since the health department was started, the environmental health division has enforced an ordinance regulating individual sewage disposal systems. The ordinance requires that all septic systems installed in the county must meet certain specifications of health department before the system can be installed. Thus far in 1961 the department has inspected and approved 447 septic systems. The health department also provides consultation and follow-up on complaints regarding previously installed systems which are failing. They have answered approximately 200 of these complaints in 1961.

In addition to control and improvement of sewage disposal, the department carries on a continuous surveillance of stream and lake water quality by the bacterial analysis of water samples. Each lake in the county used by any appreciable number of swimmers is sampled once every three weeks by residents who live nearby. The Illinois State Department of Health Laboratory in Chicago tests each sample in order to determine the concentration of two types of bacteria, which are present in human sewage. If the number of bacteria at any one sampling point rises to a consistently dangerous level, a sanitarian inspects the area in order to determine if sewage pollution is present.

This summer no lake sampling station has indicated the possibility of dangerous pollution and most bathing areas reveal very low concentrations of pollutional bacteria. This sampling program is conducted with the cooperation of over 25 volunteers who actually collect the water samples. Streams and creeks are sampled at key points by a health department sanitarian employed to work on the lake and stream sampling program during the summer months.

The health department has plans for new pollution abatement activities. A small laboratory is being established in the department's Libertyville office, which will make possible more rigid bacterial analysis of water samples. A consulting engineering firm has been engaged to evaluate the best ways of planning the future facilities for sewage disposal on a county-wide basis. The engineering firm of Consoer, Townsend and Associates will study the amount of sewage effluent existing streams in the county can accept and the present and future facilities for local sewage disposal.

Dr. Baker stated that the staff of the Lake County Health Department will continue their pollution abatement programs in Lake County so that tragic destruction of beautiful streams and valuable recreation areas will not happen here.

Early diagnosis and proper treatment can prevent severe crippling in seven out of ten arthritic victims, says the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation.

Grant Names Highland Coach As Grid Mentor

Robert Schraeder, 38, former varsity basketball and assistant football coach at Highland Park High School, has been named varsity football tutor at Grant Community High School.

Schraeder will begin his coaching duties at Grant the week of Aug. 21 when team candidates check in for physicals and practice.

Schraeder succeeds Ed Richardson, who resigned this summer to accept a position on the coaching staff at Missouri State Teachers' College at Kirksville, Mo.

The new coach has 10 years of experience. He was football, basketball and English-mathematics instructor for two years at Galena (Ill.) High School, and was athletic director, physical education director and social problems teacher for five years at Sauk City, Wis.

Schraeder is a graduate of Oshkosh State Teacher's College and took three years of post graduate work at the University of Wisconsin.

While serving at Sauk City High his team posted a 98-22 five-year record and won three conference titles. His basketball team placed third in Wisconsin in 1956-57.

During his three years at Highland Park his team won 32 games and lost 25. His 1959-1960 club posted a 13-6 record and tied for third in the Suburban League with a 9-5 mark.

During the past year he was a Ford salesman for Holmes Motors in Highland Park and then owner of his own agency, Bob Schraeder Motors, in Algonquin.

In addition to being varsity football coach at Grant, Schraeder will be driver training instructor. He was given a one-year contract, standard for the school. Assisting him will be Kenneth Naffziger, of Chadwick, Ill., who will take over the post previously held by Jim Lumber, who resigned last spring.

Salem Central Opens Aug. 31 To New Pupils

Salem Central High School at Paddock Lake begins the 1961-62 school with classes on August 31 and Sept. 5 for freshmen.

All other students will report to classes Sept. 6. Registration for all freshmen and transfer students is in progress from now to Aug. 30 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

All freshmen and new students must register in advance of school opening, according to Allen H. Erickson, district administrator. He said some 200 freshmen are expected, bringing the enrollment to about 700.
